Spirit of Christmas Abroad in the Land

HEARTWARMING CHRISTMAS scenes like this are being enacted by the golden glow of firelight all over the world this night before Christmas. Mysterious magic of the festive season is very real to these two Edmonton kiddies. Safe and cuddled warmly beside the fireplace, Judy, left and Paddy Unwin are sure their stockings will be bulging by morning. Saint Nicholas has never failed them yet. It isn't Christmas without the delightful laughter of children. These two children are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Unwin, 11152 56 street.

Big Day Is Planned For Royal Family Christmas

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

LONDON, Dec. 24.—(CP)—The King and Queen will have their whole family around them at Buckingham Palace tomorrow—the first Christmas they have spent in London since their coronation in 1937. The usual Christmas at the Royal Lodge at Sandringham, in Norfolk, had to be abandoned when doctors advised the King not to travel. Around the festive fireside at the Palace there will be the usual exchange of Yuletide gifts and a Christmas tree for the children. Princess Elizabeth, Prince Philip, and their infant son, Prince Charles, will be there, with Princess Margaret, Queen Mary, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, the Duchess of Kent and their children.

DOUBLE EVENT

For Princess Alexandra of Kent it will be a special occasion for Christmas Day in her birthday and this year she will be 32.

The first thing Christmas morning the children will discover from their stockings that Santa Claus has penetrated even the new "fool-proof" burglar alarm system installed at the Palace.

The fact that four generations of her family will be represented at

BAKERY COMBINES MAY BE PROSECUTED

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—(CP)—A Justice department spokesman last night said the department was ready to give consideration to the prosecution of five western bakeries and two trade associations for alleged price-fixing practices.

The case would be brought before Justice Minister Garson, if all three provinces involved—British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Alberta, agreed.

So far the Justice department has only the agreement, for such action of the Saskatchewan attorney-general, J. W. Corman.

Only if the other two provinces agree, can the federal government give consideration to the prosecution of the companies and associations involved, the spokesman said.

MLA's Look To Pay Boost

Alberta's legislators, with new mandates from their constituencies, may have a cheery Yuletide message.

But delivery of the happy word will be hampered by a delay in the legislative session.

It has been learned from a semi-official but reliable source that estimates are being framed for an official view to increase from $2,000 per year to $2,500.

Annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League initiated the move with a request for a "substantial increase" in sessional indemnities.

It is not known if cabinet ministers whose annual pay is $6,000 will be asked to increase theirs to $7,500.

State of Israel Is Recognized

New Move Made By Canadian Gov't

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—(CP)—Canada today gave provisional recognition to Israel and to its sovereign government in a Christmas Eve message to Moshe Shertok, foreign secretary of the new Jewish state in the Holy Land.

External Affairs Minister Pearson announced the action at a press conference. He said the possibility of an exchange of diplomatic missions had not yet been considered.

Canada becomes the 19th country to recognize the Jewish state, created and proclaimed May 15, 1948, following the November 1947, resolution of the United Nations on partitioning Palestine.

Mr. Pearson, in a prepared statement, said that in the seven months since Israel came into existence, it had "given satisfactory proof that it complies with the essential conditions of statehood."

These essentials, the statement said, are generally recognized to be external independence and effective internal government within a reasonably well-defined territory.

Practical effect of the recognition will be to enable the Canadian government now to correspond or otherwise deal with Israel as a government of Israel on a formal basis, recognize Israel passports, enter trade negotiations and other international relations.

CUSTOMARY PRACTICE
Mr. Pearson said the recognition decision was made some days ago, but not announced until the customary practice of consulting other commonwealth governments of the proposed action had been completed.

The following countries already have recognized Israel: In the order in which they gave recognition: The United States; Guatemala; Russia; Uruguay; Nicaragua; Poland; Czechoslovakia; Yugoslavia; South Africa; Hungary; Finland; Rumania; Costa Rica; Panama.

ASHERN, Man. Dec. 24.—(CP)—Manitoba's coalition government today has elected its first provincial minister in the Ashern, provincial constituency, result of yesterday's by-election in which James Frederick Anderson, Liberal Progressive candidate, won easily over CCF opponent Mike Macynski.

Results from all 18 polls in the northern riding straddling the area between Lakes Winnipeg and Lake Winnipegosis were slow in coming in, due in part to snow-blocked roads. The 11 polls before which the coalition ended last night to await Mr. Macynski's 797 votes to 297 for Mr. Anderson.

It Happened TODAY

World

A brighter Christmas for Chinese throughout Europe was expected today. But generally it will be more expensive. For people who can afford it, there are plenty of chickens, ducks and geese and the British food ministry has authorized extra rations of some light-controlled foods.

People

Four burglars were frightened out of a house in Sutton, England, last night when Keith Hanson and girl friend Frances Snape, British teen-agers, paused in their card playing long to sing "Silent Night." Instead of being greeted by the usual Yuletide beneficence, they saw the four house-breakers scramble from an open window.

Not even a cockle bough off the attentions of a Labrador retriever who tore the pants off a British postman at Freshford, Somerset, England, yesterday. Posty Thomas Musty told a British court he liked dogs, that he braked the one which later munched on his leg with a cockle. There is no available record of a court decision.

Vancouver's Magistrate Oscar Ott has made up his mind that he's going to have the padlock law applied to another Vancouver house. A week ago he ordered a house closed for "frequent and illegally selling liquor." Thursday he told two convicted bootleggers that their five-room bungalow would be padlocked.

The Nation

As soon as provincial governments decide on a route for the trans-Canada highway, the federal government will tell how much it is prepared to aid in construction. Hon. James A. MacKinnon, West Edmonton's MP and federal minister of mines and resources said in Ottawa. The provincial governments are also expected to agree on standards of construction to be adopted.

Saskatchewan's government "vigorously protests" a recently announced move by Canadian railways which would move a former-impement shipping into a higher-bulk and boost the freight rates. Resources Minister L. F. McIntosh voiced the complaint in a recent announcement.

Assistant Clerk of the Commons, Roy T. Graham, has been appointed a judge of the Saskatchewan court of King's bench.

His first job will be to organize and head an income tax appeal board for a year. Former Liberal member of Commons for Swift Current, he will serve as chairman of the three-man board.

Automobiles Injure Two

Two persons are in hospital and one motorist faces a dangerous driving charge as a result of traffic accidents in Edmonton Thursday night.

Both injured persons were pedestrians, struck by autos as they crossed downtown streets.

Driver of the auto which struck Miss Malone, said to be Robert Revere, 1002 106 street, was to appear in police court today on charge of dangerous driving.

His auto allegedly struck the woman as she was crossing the intersection at 104 street and 100 avenue Wednesday evening. She is in the general hospital.

Kneek Wilk, who was in a car, said to be operated by Michael Bruter, 408 118 street, travelling north on 96 street, struck him as he attempted to cross the street near 100 avenue.

He was taken to the Royal Alexandra hospital for examination for a possible skull fracture.

Wage Negotiations Reach Settlement

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—(CP)—Settlement of wage negotiations between Canadian shipping companies and the 3,000 men in the International Longshoremen's Association was announced today by Labor Minister Mitchell.

A general wage increase of 10 cents an hour was provided in the agreement, negotiated through the mediation of H. B. Phillips of Fredericton, N.B., labor department conciliation officer for the Maritime.

The increase brings general cargo rates to $1.58 an hour for day work and $1.48 for night work. Bulk cargo rates are $1.45 and $1.35.

Pope Pius Calls For Lasting Peace

Economic And Immigration Barriers Are Assailed

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 24. — (BUP) — Pope Pius XII appealed to the world today in his 10th annual Christmas message to build a lasting peace by tearing down economic and immigration barriers, and by quarantining nations which "break the jaw" of peace.

In a 35-minute, 5,000-word speech broadcast to the world from the Vatican, the pontiff said he hoped the United Nations might become a full and faithful expression of this international solidarity for peace.

"Now the Birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise:"

THEREFORE the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots.

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and of the fear of the Lord.

St. Raphael

And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears;

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithful-ness the girdle of his reins.

Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion; for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

—FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

BEHOOLD, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord.

But this shall be the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall serve him;

And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord; for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

—FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

I SHALL come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth.

He shall have dominion also from sea to sea; and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

Yes, all kings shall fall down before him; all nations shall serve him.

For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth: the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

He shall spare the poor and the needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence; and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

His name shall endure forever; his name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him blessed.

Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

—FROM THE 22ND PSALM.

ID in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth.

To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel came in unto her and said, Hail, thou art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women.

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be,

And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

For with God nothing shall be impossible.

And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

And Mary arose in those days, and went unto the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah;

And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost;

And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

And lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

And blessed is she that believed; for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord.

And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden; for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

St. Raphael

And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

He hath shewed strength from his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree;

He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy. As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David.

To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

AND SHE BROUGHT FORTH HER FIRSTBORN SON, AND WRAPPED HIM IN SWADDLING CLOTHES, AND LAID HIM IN A MANGER; BECAUSE THERE WAS NO ROOM FOR THEM IN THE INN.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night,

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

AND, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

And he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word;

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou has prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people.

—FROM THE GOSPEL OF ST. LUKE, THE PHYSICIAN.

IN THE beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

That was the true Light, which lighteth every man, that cometh into the world.

He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name;

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

—FROM THE GOSPEL OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

Wells Gush On Christmas But Not the Oil Workers

At least eight hours of Christmas will be just another working day for many oil field workers in the producing fields surrounding Edmonton.

Most of the major oil-producing and drilling companies in Edmonton reported today that operations will continue as usual over the holiday.

OPERATIONS CUT
Majority of companies are reducing as many of their men as possible for the day by cutting down on all operations which are not essential to maintenance of production.

Of course, those who do work will collect double pay for the day and will have 16 hours left over to celebrate Christmas on their own. Only rule of conduct being laid down is a strict "no liquor" rule.

Some drilling companies report that several of their rigs are expected to have completed jobs by December 25 and so their crews will be allowed to take advantage of the holiday before beginning a new job.

It is not expected that any unusual incidents in the line of "celebration" will occur in the field.

SANTA IN DERRICK
"Where would Santa Claus land on an oil derrick?" queried one operator.

Most of the auxiliary services in connection with the oil industry, such as testing outfit, will remain "on call."

"If there is any way out of it, we are not going to work," said one, "but we may have to."

A modification of the policy, being tried by at least one of the major companies, is to give a three-day holiday to office staffs and crews either at Christmas or New Years, with half off for each.

Relief office staffs will also get a three-day holiday at Christmas.

These housewives who have prepared their own mince-meat, plum pudding and fruit cake, will find the cost of their dinner less than those who have to venture store-bought for all their needs.

Major G. W. Luxton, superintendent of the home, reports that the organ, which has served its purpose in past years has now gone completely out of service, and unless a suitable piano or organ can be quickly located there will be no Christmas music for the inmates.

Besides providing shelter for 32, the home is the regular meeting place of various South Side groups, all of which in the past have made use of the organ.

Christmas Feast For 5 Costs $12

Turkey And Trimmings Naturally Biggest Item

By Eunice Hoffman

That most important dinner of all the year, the Christmas dinner, is just a weary snuff away now, the result of weeks of planning and preparation.

Canadian housewives have been aware for a long time that Christmas fare this year is going to be more expensive than ever. The price of turkey and its accessories has skyrocketed to new heights. The bird, leading the way, is the major item of expense on the dinner menu, selling currently from 40 to 70 cents a pound.

ALL-INCLUSIVE PRICE

From present-day prices gleaned from Bulletin advertisements, it was found that a Yuletide feast for a family of five will run comfortably near the neighborhood of an even dozen dollars. That is an all-inclusive price, and takes in the coffee they will drink, the sugar they will consume, and the nuts and oranges they will enjoy later.

The price of $12 for a family of five need not be too frightening, however, for some of the items could be eliminated if the budget found the strain a bit crippling. It must be remembered, too, that prices are those on articles purchased from stores.

CAN BE LOWER

Those housewives who have prepared their own mince-meat, plum pudding and fruit cake, will find the cost of their dinner less than those who have to venture store-bought for all their needs.

The Salvation Army's Bumble Doon Eventide Home is facing the prospects of a musicless Christmas.

Mother, Baby Are Drowned

VANCOUVER, Dec. 24.—(CP).—A 46-year-old mother and her infant daughter, en route here to do Christmas shopping were drowned in the waters of the Fraser river late yesterday when their 16-foot speedboat struck drifting debris and sank.

The husband and father, Claridge (Bill) Morehouse, 50, of nearby Shuswap, B.C., was rescued and taken to hospital suffering shock and exposure.

Tragging operations were under way today in an effort to recover the bodies of Mrs. Morehouse, mother of four other children, and her six-month-old daughter, Terry Burt, 29-year-old captain of the tug Young Hustler, heard the emergency whistle from a dredge and saw Morehouse clinging to a log boom. ## Congress' Spy Probes Over for This Year

By Douglas B. Cornell

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—(AP)—The United States congressional spy hearings are over for this year.

Whether they will start up again in the new congress depends on how the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee votes. And it will have at least four new members.

The present members are going to pass along some advice to the 1949 committee. But the committee itself isn't going to recommend any reforms in its operations.

Representative Karl Mundt (Rep., S.D.) and Richard Nixon (Rep., Calif.) are working on some proposals along that line and expect to issue a joint statement.

Mundt said he still intends to try that the committee. Give every accused person a hearing before any report is issued about him.

Bank Official Quits After Graft Probe

Recent Witness In British Gov't Investigation Resigns

LONDON, Dec. 24.—(AP)—The treasury announced today that George Gibson, recent witness at an investigation of graft rumors in the Labor government, has resigned as a governor of the Bank of England.

Gibson told a special tribunal he went around with Polish-born promoter Sidney Stanley and instructed him to other government officials, but denied that his actions involved any wrongdoing.

The resignation of the 63-year-old Gibson, a former head of the second by members of Prime Minister Attlee's government, who figured in the inquiry.

John W. Belcher, who acknowledged he was friendly with Stanley but denied taking any graft, quit as parliamentary secretary to the Board of Trade after the tribunal had heard his story.

The three-man tribunal completed 26 days of hearings Tuesday. It is expected to report its findings to the home secretary about Feb. 1.

Parliament set up the tribunal at the request of Attlee, who said there had been talk of payments to government officials for favors involving import licenses and the

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Christmas

Christmas is here again, with its special appeal to each of us. This is not a day for mere feasting and merry-making. The real drama of Christmas lies in the heart; in the inspiration it gives to imitate the Prince of Peace, Whose birthday is being commemorated everywhere on earth.

Once, as children, we loved Christmas because of its excitement and glamor. It was a time for planning gifts, and, best of all for receiving gifts. Perhaps we hung stockings and could hardly sleep thinking of what Santa Claus would bring. There were those who went to church, where the choir sang the carols we grew to love and cherish.

But now we are older, and Christmas has taken on more serious aspects. The Child Whose birth is commemorated for our sins. Because of Him we are called sons of God and brothers of Christ. Christmas, then, is a time both of joy and sorrow. Joy because it is a commemoration and proof of God's love, and sorrow because the Prince of Peace still cries out in vain to men who will not hear.

Pilgrims will stand today in the very place where the Child lay awaiting the shepherds. But there is no peace outside the great shrine at Bethlehem. There is war in the land of Christ. There is war in China. In Europe there is the threat and the fear of war. In many countries, fear, desolation and suffering are widespread. Christ comes, but his enemies are before Him—the Herods who would bring corruption to His crib. Nevertheless, there is always the promise and the hope. There will be worthy shelters for the Child today in many good, pure hearts. The enemies who would slay the New-born are legion. But surely there is a greater legion of faithful believers who remember Bethlehem, where redemption was purchased. Nativity, where the Child grew in grace, and Calvary, where men were taught the meaning and the power of love.

Bethlehem and Calvary are always close together. They were the places of Christ's supreme manifestations. They remain as symbols of the enduring miracle of Christianity. They are the signs of those who never grow dismayed, who will never be without consolation even in the darkest hours. Today we think of Bethlehem and rejoice because Christmas is forever.

PASTOR K. C. CHERIAN

Pastor From India Here

From the land of many people, many languages and many religions comes Pastor K. C. Cherian, of the Syrian Christian Community on the Malabar coast in South India.

He comes to Edmonton following a trip through the Scandinavian countries, the British Isles and the United States. He is impressed by the size of Canada, but not by the number of people, for India, he says, has over 35 times as many people with one-third the area.

Mr. Cherian tells of the fabulous country that Canadians have read about, but few have seen. It is the India of wealth and poverty, of learned and ignorant men, of the caste system prevailing for centuries, only now begun to break down. First step has been taken with the establishment of what is supposed to be compulsory education for children from five to nine years of age.

It will take a long time to eliminate the age-old caste system, said the pastor, but another 35 years should see an appreciable change.

LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM

O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep

The silent stars go by:
Yet in thy dark streets shone
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in this tonight.

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His Son.

No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where woe and pain are mingled,
His love and kindness shine.

The dawn of Bethlehem,
O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Deceived us not; we pray:
"Call not our sin and enter in,
He burns us all today."
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell,
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!

Services Arranged At Metropolitan

Post Christmas services will be held in Metropolitan Church Sunday at 11 a.m. Guest speaker will be Chas. (Major) John A. Burgess, Music will be by the Junior choir.

A candlelight service will take place in the evening when the minister will preach. Mr. Ray LeRoy Olsen, violinist will play several numbers.

Ministers Seek Salary Increases

United Church Announces Campaign For $2,400 Each

The United Church of Canada has announced preliminary plans to raise minimum salaries for ordained ministers to $2,400 yearly within the next three years.

Objective for 1949 will be a $2,100 minimum, for 1950 the rate will be $2,200 and by 1951 it is hoped that every ordained minister will be in receipt of $2,500 yearly—as well as a free house.

CONFERENCE HELD

A conference of leading United Church laymen took place in Toronto, and leading United churchmen from coast to coast formed a national committee. This, in turn, was asked to keep before a long range program of information for all church members on the urgency of raising salaries to a point more in keeping with today's high cost of living.

When the latest income statistics were published late this autumn, newspaper reports did not even mention ministers. Physicians, lawyers, teachers, engineers, writers, artists, dentists—all the professions were there except that of ministers of the gospel.

Yet the ministers of the United Church, who are expected to inspire their congregations and to be leaders in their communities, must maintain ordinary living standards comparable to those of teachers, lawyers, and doctors. Their families must be fed, clothed and educated in keeping with the high esteem in which they are held because the minister, his wife and his children all represent the United Church of Canada.

The fact is that ministers' salaries are beneath mention. Of the 2,718 active ordained ministers of the United Church of Canada, more than half of them—1,342—get $2,000 a year or less. This is about three dollars a week under the present average wage scale for industry.

Some 500 of these receive between $1,700 and $2,300 in salary. Over 84 per cent of United Church ministers get $2,500 or less. Even with a free house, this is small money. Practically every minister is obliged to operate an automobile and, in almost every case, the whole of this is a charge on the minister's salary.

Under today's conditions, many United Church ministers are skimping on food, clothing, education, insurance and recreation. Indeed, one carefully kept account book, for a family of seven reads: "1947, refreshments (treats) to children, anything recreational, $36.40."

Two or three million years ago, Tibet and neighboring regions were a well-watered, and well-forested area only slightly above the sea.

MANILA, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Ricardo C. Coia, Filipino public relations officer of The Netherlands, resigned today in protest to the Dutch attacks on the Indonesian republic. Coia, a former Manila newspaper man, wrote Netherlands minister "A. J. B. ### Youth Faces Murder Charge On Dec. 29

CALGARY, Dec. 24.—(CP)—Preliminary hearing of a charge of murder against 16-year-old Allan Newton of Rummey, Alta., will open at Drumheller, Alta., Dec. 29, Magistrate V. B. Hawkins of Drumheller said yesterday.

The youth is charged with the Dec. 2 shooting-killing of Mrs. Raymond Moore, 34, at her farm home near Rummey. Newton had been employed as a laborer on the farm.

Sheep-Herders' Ball Is One Of Many Yule Innovations

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Many American communities have their own, individual ideas about how to make this a merry Christmas. But whatever the variations, it's all in the name of good will.

In Boise, Idaho, one group observes the Yuletide season with a "sheep-herders' ball." At the event, held by the Idaho haque colony, everybody must wear overalls and a kumby.

Christmas doesn't come until Jan. 6 in the fishing village of Rosneath, N.C. There, according to a custom followed for generations, they celebrate Old Christmas, or 13th night, an adaptation of the Feast of the Epiphany commemorating the manifestation of Christ to the Magi.

An international flavor will be added to the festivities in three upstate New York communities, where 51 persons, from 24 foreign countries will be guests over the holiday weekend.

The guests—clerical workers and others from the United Nations headquarters at Lake Success, N.Y.—will stay in the homes of 31 families in Binghamton, Johnson City and Endicott. The plan was worked out by Rotary clubs.

In Atlantic City, N.J., which celebrates its spectacle—the long boardwalk is aglow with a row of 20 lighted Christmas trees down its centre. Santa Claus appeared last night aboard a 40-foot crane, which lowered him into a lighter area where he stepped out and distributed candy to youngsters.

From a mountain top outside Hot Springs, Ark., will flash a series of tableaux symbolizing the Christ's story. Some 100 choristers will help celebrate the 18th annual Christmas Eve observance.

The Gallant Blade Opens Here Yule

Swashbuckling Thrill Has 17 Century French Setting

A deluxe swashbuckler slated for solid reception. That's the way "The Gallant Blade," which opens Saturday at the Rialto Theatre for six days, is described.

The picture stars Larry Parks and Marguerite Chapman. With its pace, color and potent marquee values, it "can't miss."

Handsomey titled, this film shows the best results achieved to date by the Cinecolor process. Careful attention to costume, interior decorating and lighting and exterior shooting has made possible well-defined but naturalistic tinting. The expert color job is typical of the picture's overall production mounting, which has the luxurious, velvety usually demanded for this type of entertainment.

Chief credit for this film's study qualities, however, belongs to the director Henry Levin. Aided by a straightforward script, Levin keeps the action rolling with heading sword and gunplay, cross-country chases, intrigue and other strivings to keep the customers, particularly the wife, in a bull.

While this picture doesn't contain a single subtle gesture, it also avoids crutching its box office with fancy trimmings.

Clock-and-dagger yarn is set in 17th century France when, according to the script, Louis XIV., a struggling broke-out between the ruling warmongering faction and a group of peace-loving generals and soldiers, Victor Jory, as the heavy, attempts to crush the rebels by kidnapping a popular general, George Macready, but Parks, as the latter's adjutant, swears the plan by outwitting his execution and out-dueling his opponents in the nick of time.

FRENCH SETTING

Too close an examination of the plot mechanics is unnecessary, and besides, it's blocked by no less than four stirring fencing matches which compensate for any holes in the yarn. Romantic angles are injected via a love affair between Marguerite Chapman, Jory's espionage agent, and Parks, but the

Holly Hop Promises Fine Music, Eats, Loads of Fun

By Don Thompson

Hi kids, what's the big word? The big word, of course, "Holly Hop," fine music, lots to eat and at your own table. That's the schedule which will fill this three and one-half hour program, and make it a night you will never forget.

For the modest fee of one dollar, and possibly fifty cents the place is yours for the evening.

Yes sir, the evening of Dec. 28, at eight-thirty o'clock will make you guys and gals want to dance and eat all night.

The aforementioned music will be supplied by one of western Canada's top dance bands, Bob Lyons and his Sereads in Blue orchestra. This is the fourth big affair of the series, and the other three were well attended and most successful.

Those in charge want this latest affair to be bigger and better. Remember, it's you kids that will make it a success so show your Edmonton spirit and latch onto

SKIPPING THE SCHOOLS

Yule Parties Feature High School Activities

By DAWN CLEATOR

This past week has been pretty slow with the exams still in the limelight. But in Commercial it was a much different story. The Christmas Dance, "Candy Cane Cuddle," was held on Dec. 17 and doing the dining honors they had none other than last week's "Who's Who" personality Johnny Armstrong.

Music was very nicely supplied by Phil McDonald's orchestra. The students body was very pleased by the attendance of so many of the teachers, Mr. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Garioung Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Miss Holly, Miss Lawrence, and Mr. Hollingsworth with his camera. The gym was beautifully decorated and everyone attending was given a little bag of candy as they entered.

The Dance club is at present taking up all the different kinds of square dances, to be followed by other kinds after Christmas. The boys and girls' tumbling clubs seem to be coming along fluently and a boys' Cycling Club has been formed.

HOLD HOBOS' HOP
Vice Exams didn't start until the 21st and so put a damper on all activities for the past week. But before that they had a dance called "Hobos' Hop" on Dec. 10, at which they gave prizes to the worst dressed couple. Mrs. Bentley's Orchestra supplied the background for square and modern dances. The crowd was a good size for Vice's gym and for refreshments there were chocolate milk, cakes and donuts.

On Dec. 16 they held their first "Prize Lull" which consisted of two short skills and a monologue. It seemed to go over big with everyone. According to all reports the same thing happened to Westglen, Exams I mean. Although, they haven't been doing badly at this. Dec. 16 came against Red Deer at which Westglen won 40-26. Dec. 17, game against Wetaskiwin, this game Westglen also won. Dec. 21, the volleyball and basketball finals started. Dec. 23 a "Lull" was held at which they had a Santa Claus and sang Christmas Carol. In charge of this "Lull" were "Muggsy" Forbes and Chelene Withards.

Shirley Wilson's basketball team won the Home League tournament at UHS. The Exams ended on Dec. 23 and were followed by a "Lull" and Dickson's Christmas Carol in the evening at which the parents were invited to attend.

"Here Comes Santa Claus" that's right, Santa Claus did come—to Eastwood, that is Dec. 17 and he was anything but quiet when he came all decked out in his usual garb. Rumors have it that when Santa came in, so did a big black and white cat, which was passed around from hand to hand, as a rather odd attraction. It seems that there was close to a tie in attendance at the two

News Is Short Says Gossiper

Ah yes, the Christmas season is here once again. Time does fly doesn't it? Everyone is busy with Christmas shopping, and planning parties. In fact you're all so busy you haven't time to make cause for gossip in this little column. Well, not much anyway.

Another couple, former members of Edmonton-Tenets have gone and done it. Yep, they have been married. Edmon-Peckles is now Mrs. Douglas Peckles.

Petite Bess Kerrison has got herself a fella again. And it's George Davis—again.

Speaking of Fridays at Central, even though only a few members are present, some things just couldn't go unnoticed.

Bill Durbely and Val Collins were seen together and Val Collins was seen together on Saturday. Sound interesting.

Bill Sherry and Hugh Stanton, the inseparable buddies were seen but these two just don't seem to be interested in girls. What fellow Liberte with cute "Trendy-Harry—one of the few gals who doesn't seem to be interested in going steady with any of the opposite sex.

At Williams has come back from the "wild" north country. Glad to see you back fella, how about staying round for awhile. You'll soon be seeing Helen Olsen, a talented Miss in the Teen-Club Variety Show (Fug). But in the order of the show music.

Not red: Season's Greetings to you all from H.P.

dances held at that night. Frank McCreary provided Eastwood with the music and for refreshments it was cakes and donuts. St. Mary's is collecting food for Christmas hampers for needy families in the city.

Director of the program "In The Women's World," heard over CFBX each week-day at 10:45 a.m. and sponsored by C. Woodward Ltd. To her many listeners and friends Helen Kent extends best wishes for a Merry Christmas.

Teen Choir Girls Are Featured On Local Radio Show

Forty Debutantes Of Song Present Pleasing Program

By W. E. Korte

The big band slowly crept towards the half-way mark of the hour between five and six. Everyone stood tense, self-poised, composed.

Time 5:30 and the CJCA studio changed into a musical sweetland as forty blondes, brunettes and red heads eased into a four part harmony. We, the listeners, were settled in easy chairs just before going home for a Sunday supper while over the air these proud debutantes of song sang some of the best arrangements of "Oklahoma," and "The Heels of St. Mary's."

I won't have to explain who I'm referring to because everyone with an ear for good music has heard the Teen Choir Society.

Grouped around in pastel colored evening gowns, so as to bring out the picture simplicity of this spectacular choir, the girls enhanced the studio with their loveliness, charm and attire.

From Ralph Couper the organist to Jean Rita the pianist and then through the girls themselves can be seen perfect coordination. But one cannot overlook the leadership of these musical young ladies.

Mrs. McCarries guides every note as a conductor who wants to bring every possible melodious tone from the singers. This choir leader insists that the girls should memorize so as to do away with the bulkiness of sheet music.

In order to be able to acquire the proper knowledge of each

By EVELYN "GABBY" GORR

If Santa had slid down the chimney and had started digging under-covered packages from his mysterious pack, chances are that he'd find all records this year and fill your stockings with your favorite platters! (Providing, of course, you've been a good kid all year.)

AN IMPORTANT PART

Music plays such an important part in any holiday activity, and Christmas takes the lead. If the "Hit Parade" for this week had probably be "White Christmas," "Jingle Bells," "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," and on and on through the many old favorites that will never grow old as long as a star shines from the top of a Christmas tree.

In hopes that the present soon would be through.
And we on the staff in the sports-writing profession
Had just settled down for a Yuletide luncheon
When out on the stairs there rose such a clatter
I sprang to the door to see what was the matter
A bundle of fury in overcoat black
Brushed past me and stomped to a spot near the back
He kicked off his overcoat, pulled off his coat
And flinging a sheep, the tale he smote.

"I've come to get justice for rascals," he bellowed.
"A sport so old it's hoary and yellowed
I want to see more in your sheet about Gorgous
And Primo and Newman and Murder and Korjus
You harp on baseball, 'cause they jump screaming
And Mason gets gallons each time he comes beaming
Basketball, too, calling and soccer
And once those sports which can be played in a rocker
Flyers are headlines, bowling just foot
Rilly does no wrong, Samia gets apots
I ain't no one to knock, 'cause I don't do no good
But why forget 'rascals? I don't think you should."

He paused to take breath, paced down to the window
Then wheeled where he stood, his voice in crescendo
"All summer long you write better-seller
Or Morgan, Manlow, Seaman and Heller
And if it ain't those guys it's Henry Martell
To say nothing of Lofius and Cameron, as well
You even spot football, swimming and chess
Those nags at the race track come in for much prosa
You even write yards about such games as cricket
When you don't even know a bat from a wicket
And then there are those who can't nag a lick
If they merit attention, my name ain't Goldstick."

He seemed to be through as he reached for his hat
But as he was leaving the door he spat
"I'll go you one further," he continued in fuming,
"Any ten of those ball players couldn't toss Newman
And as for the golfers and hockeyists . . . phooey
There ain't a one of 'em as much good as Henry
McGill would make mince meat, Al Mills cause a riot
If any of them amashers dare so much as try it.
If he's battened his coat over his Houston jacket
And said no more about the rascals' racket
But I heard him exclaim as he stormed out of sight,
"Merry Christmas to all and to all—good 'rascals!"

Al Oeming Arranges
His Christmas Card

On the day before Christmas promoter Al Oeming is still talking wrestling.

The story he tells is about his first and last Christmas card.

Number 28—A real Christmas tree for the fans, he promised.

Could be. He has one of the best. The Miller and Lou (The Body) Newman remained in the main event with a supporting cast of three matches.

LAIRD VS. THE GIANT
Laird, who used to kick football in the shadow of Boston's Beacon Hill, and the American-born Canadian giant match holds in the semi-finals.

Frank Marconi from Akron, Ohio, and Ted Tourant of Los Angeles will appear in a 45-minute special event.

In the preliminary Dairdall Outlets and Laird-Jacobs, both of this city, will complete the card.

LOVE THAT MAN
Wally (Love that man) Beaumont and Gail (Man of the Year) Goldstick are slated to maintain law and order in—and out-of—the ring.

The Mills-Newman go is a fight God-fish affair with the winner taking home the prize.

Winner of the best-of-three falls, will take home all the prize money.

Overtime Thriller
As Mercurys Win
POMERAY, Dec. 21—Jimmy Kilburn, sticky rearguard, spared Waterloo Mercurys to a 50 over time triumph over Pomera.

Mercurys in a third-innings Northern Alberta Intermediate A Hockey league game played here Thursday night. Some 500 fans took in the best game of the season to date.

Kilburn bulged the jump for the first time, then taking a 120 shot eldritch in overtime. He also helped Len Gaud with the insurance marker in the extra frame.

Teams battled to a 1-1 tie in the first 20 minutes, were dedicated at 2-2 in the second period and 2-2 at full time.

Joe Stanley and Ab Nesme fired the other Mercurys goal, while Len Tully, Gaud and Roy Jay line, new-appointed, saluted for the homers.

It was a high-class fixture.

Christmas Greetings!
to those of you whom we have had the privilege of serving . . . and to those of you whose acquaintance we look forward to making! May you and yours enjoy a Yuletide crowded with happiness . . . and a happy, prosperous 1949.

'Peace On Earth'
And Sharp Axes

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(BUP)—This is said to be the season of peace on earth and good will toward men and in sports they are doing their best today to make a dead pigeon out of the little white dove.

In every sport there are screaming debates which make the United Nations look like a church picnic.

And there is more shouting-posting going on than Anne Oakley ever dreamed about.

Looking in on any division of the music parade and will see one sharp hatchet. There are not for cutting log wood or decimating Washington Bay celebrations. They are the haying kind—to be interested in the competition.

Football has a dandy little demonstration currently being invited the All-American conference into its fair and then tried to break it up. The A.C. held out and went back on the cold shiver stick, with the NFL still pretending some sort of divine right.

FOOTBALL, TOO
College football, too, is a nice little morose. With great righteousness, the football critics, the south and accuses it of grunting! football scholars with all their fussing and feuding, and the need for the return of the sport to the campus. But a dollar still is a dollar, and everybody's out for the golf posse.

Basketball coaches currently are grunting about the current, yelling that they have been "robbed" by officials in other sections. Wicked innuendoes are tossed about the gambling evils and the need for the return of the sport to the campus. But a dollar still is a dollar, and everybody's out for the golf posse.

Baseball, the National pastime, is loaded with feuds. The major leagues and the minors are warring over television and the bonus rule, in the majors, one group of owners is at the helm, because the Englishman called a strike on him. Lawson Little right-left walked out as rules commissioner A. B. Chandler, Leo Durocher or Ted Williams, just to give you some of the everyday.

GOLF HAD BIG YEAR
Gold had a great year. Henry Ramon took a poke at Henry Cotton, one of the nation's greats, because the Englishman called a strike on him. Lawson Little right-left walked out as rules commissioner A. B. Chandler, Leo Durocher or Ted Williams, just to give you some of the everyday.

Rangers Cool Off Hawks;
Montreal Shades Bruins

By the Canadian Press

Montreal Canadiens Thursday night blocked Boston Bruins but for first place in the National Hockey league. They beat the tired Bruins 4-2, leaving St. Charles's club a point behind the leading Detroit Red Wings.

New York Rangers won their first game, 1-0, Patrick, playing their third game with Patrick at the helm, they edged out Chicago Black Hawks 2-3, but remained in last place, two points behind Toronto Maple Leafs.

The shuffle left Montreal in fourth place, a point behind Chicago.

St. Louis (Hockey) Richard came to life last night to sink two goals for Canadiens while Billy Reay (the clincher) and Norm Dussault pulled one each, Jim Peters and Harry Reay scored for Bruins.

The game was delayed by the late arrival of Bruins' train from Boston and just before the face-off, Elmer Lach of Montreal received the Art Ross Trophy—leading the league in scoring last year.

NEW WIN STRINGS
Victory gave Rangers a string of four in five games, including a tie. Hawks, by losing, broke their winning streak at four games, plus a tie.

Victory gave Rangers a string of four in five games, including a tie. Hawks, by losing, broke their winning streak at four games, plus a tie.

Bill (Hockey) Richard came to life last night to sink two goals for Canadiens while Billy Reay (the clincher) and Norm Dussault pulled one each, Jim Peters and Harry Reay scored for Bruins.

The game was delayed by the late arrival of Bruins' train from Boston and just before the face-off, Elmer Lach of Montreal received the Art Ross Trophy—leading the league in scoring last year.

ON THE TOWN

By J.D.

Merry Christmas!
Sure it's a merry Christmas if you work where the boss hands you a Christmas cigar and then locks the shop or office until next Monday or Tuesday morn. But there's a lot of people—good Christmas-loving folk too—who don't get the breaks like Santa Claus day.

MERRY CHRISTMAS for the railroad man, says retired CNR engineer L.H. Hill, often means cold, turkey sandwiches in the dreary cab of a 4300. Perhaps it's a badly stenciled lunch tucked in the caboose or a heap of greasy turkey giblets in a divisional point beauty. It can mean hunking snow drifts, desolation or cold weather engine failure. But seldom Christmas dinner at home with the wife and kids.

MERRY CHRISTMAS for the city fire department has often meant the biggest fire of the year, caused in many instances by careless celebrants. For Edmonton's fire Chief James A. MacGregor, Merry Christmas has in 37 years, been the virtual certainty that Christmas dinner will not be eaten on schedule in his own home.

MERRY CHRISTMAS for the family doctor quite often means a desperate battle to save a human life. Dr. J. E. Carmichael

Edmonton Veterans Ready for Yuletide Festivities

IT ISN'T CHRISTMAS without a tree, so these veteran patients and hospital staffers just the touches on this big spruce in Mewburn Pavilion's recreation hall. It took the eager crew a whole afternoon's work before the job was ready for approval of their fellow patients and workers. Left to right: Mrs. Allison Lamb, convalescent of recreation activities; Reg Merryweather, Frances Gavanagh, Edward Strickland and Jean Climie.

"MIX THAT CAKE!" And Major "Gerry" Shirrage of the 11th Dental Corps does just that under close eye of Mewburn Pavilion dietician Myra Haech. Ingredients of this cake and many others, besides full course dinners, will feed some 150 hungry veterans some Christmas Day. "Gerry" keeps a pretty close watch on that cookbook, too, mostly because he's outnumbered.

THIRD CHRISTMAS in bed for Ken Rootes, former lieutenant with the Loyal Edmonton Regiment in Italy. What would they like for Christmas?
"The Bulletin, through the good offices of the Christmas fairy (recently appointed to the staff) launched a few enquiries today among prominent citizens of the city and province on what they would like to find in their stockings come Christmas morning.

Glen E. Roper, CCF leader—A recount of the power plebiscite ballot.
Police Chief Reg Jennings—A nice quiet Christmas night at home with his wife and children.
Harper House, Alberta Liberal leader—Another provincial election about next July.
Hon. D. H. MacMillan, minister of public works—A new way of saying "no news" to newspaper reporters.

Fire Chief James McGregor—Just a safe and sane fireless Christmas.

First Novel of Irwin Shaw Hailed As Fine Writing

THE YOUNG LIONS, by Irwin Shaw. Toronto: Random House of Canada Limited. $4.00, 689 pages.

Outstanding playwright (Bury The Bells, The Gentle People) and short-story writer Irwin Shaw has, in The Young Lions, completed his most ambitious undertaking.

And in so doing he has top-flight critics both hailing and "nailing" his latest effort.

This reviewer is most emphatically all of the latter.

Actually, the story is a three-act, telling of two Americans who, following their personal start through a cruel month of World War II and the war itself, find themselves in the hands of the Axis.

On the other hand, his development of the two Americans in the reverse of the American's life, as we first see him, is a skillful and gripping tale of the Nazi period.

Michael plagues by his feeling of insufficiency—become more self-reliant and eventually better equipped person.

MEET IN SAVANNA

As the war draws to an end, so does the feeling of tension. Climax comes when the three meet in the savanna. And upon close-up, the skillfully-controlled and emotional novel, this reviewer felt that Irwin Shaw had borne out the promise indicated in his earlier works.

Does it of outstanding clarity and force in telling of man's greatest struggle, for his superb revelation of man in war and the understanding it brings to the reader, The Young Lions should be widely read.

First P. G. Woodhouse book since his switch in publishers—from Doubleday to Diller—was the recently published Uncle Dynamite.

OF TWO AMERICANS

Michael Whitacre, an alcoholic Broadway stage-manager, in 1938 is a man in his mid-thirties; the broods about the situation in Paris and the emptiness of his life.

Other American is Noel Askerman, who, before the war is not made too conscious of his Jewish parents. His winning and winning of a New England girl and his year with her before joining the army is equal to any part of this moving volume.

In fact Noel is Shaw's outstanding character. His fight against anti-Semitism and the eventual chance in the face of open discrimination, are believably and forcefully told. That such discrimination did exist in the services is a fact; but that it is so fully revealed in a novel is a wonder and a distinct triumph.

THE TEMPERATURE OF THE PLANET

The temperature of the planet is a fact; but that it is so fully revealed in a novel is a wonder and a distinct triumph.

Bergen, McCarthy To Retire Sunday Finance Is Suggested As Reason Behind Move

By Don Flach

Veritable old-timer in the fast changing world of radio, Edgar Bergen will crack his last (for a while, at least) joke through the wooden lips of stooges McCarthy and Sherd this Sunday.

The program will make its last appearance, at least until next September when it is heard at 6:00 Sunday evening on CBC and CIBC. Outenburgh, Mr. Bergen said in explaining his retirement, "I'm going to get off in the distance a bit and look at radio for a while."

Perhaps a more convincing reason why the voice of Charley and Mortimer is leaving the air has something to do with the matter of finance. According to reports, the couple were finding the Bergen bill of $25,000 weekly for everything and everyone involved excluding station time, a bit too much to take.

With that much money you'd think he could allow Charley more than 10 cents a week.

It is also reported that falling the deal with the coffee-drink maker, Mr. Bergen had taken with soft-drink makers, but here again the announcement of his "retirement" followed, and the holiday probably last until someone offers him the kind of money to which he is accustomed, probably next September when the new radio season starts.

Highly laudable is Mr. Bergen's desire to "get off at a distance and look at radio for a while." If more of the industry bigwigs were to do likewise, improvement of the benefit of the listener might accrue.

Tomorrow is Christmas Day and special programs have been planned for the entire broadcast day. All commercial programs on the CBC and CIBC have been cancelled in keeping with the observance of the day.

First of the special programs will be the Empire "Good Neighbors" broadcast, starting at 7:00 p.m. Christmas morning and carried by all stations.

Broadcast of the King will be heard at 8:00 and a program by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will start at 8:15.

The grapevine has it that famed coloratura soprano Erna Sack is coming to Edmonton.

Reports last summer indicated that Mrs. Sack would be making a Canadian tour sometime in 1967, and according to reliable sources she will be taking that tour this spring.

Concerto by Canadian Issued in Victor Album

Chalking up a "first" in this country's music world, RCA Victor Co., Ltd., this month issued in album form, the Concerto in G minor composed by Dr. Healey Willson of the University of Toronto music faculty.

LITTING MELODIES OF CHRISTMAS CAROLS

O HOLY NIGHT... The stars are brightly shining... the night when all Christianity is filled with peace and the spirit of goodwill. Beautiful Christmas carols were meant to be sung by everyone... and especially by pretty girls with equally pretty voices such as Ruth Gilly, well-known Edmonton soprano. Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gully of 10718 106 street.

SPARKLE OF TINSEL MATCHES SMILE

MOST FUN OF ALL at the Merry Yuletide season is trimming the Christmas tree with the shiny glass balls, the silver tinsel and the garlands of glittering sparkles. Margaret Lipsey's glowing smile reflects the glow from her pretty tree. Margaret is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Lipsey of 10107 Saskatchewan Drive and is division for the Education building, University of Alberta.

Frantic Hurrying Spoils Holiday

By Bea Thrift

Are you all ready for the Big Day? I hope so. Chance it's no fun making frantically about at the last moment, drossing your turkey, making a centerpiece, planning table arrangements, wrapping the last gifts for the tree... and the million and one other things a homemaker has to do at this busy time.

Of course... most of us will be doing just this.

I'm as excited as the tin tins, and I've been drowsily poking, pinching, snatching the parcels addressed to me.

We leapt into the Christmas and foraged around in forests to find just the right Christmas tree... and after hours in hours of hard labor we came home with an effort that looks like a lopsided evergreen.

But it's a Christmas tree... and it's ours... and we like it.

Christmas is just a sparkling time... sparkling decorations, sparkling chatter and sparkling eyes... it's reassuring to feel our hard created melting softening. Turning from hard-hearted business-minded creatures to sweet gentle, sympathetic, doting, kind, cheerful souls... 'Tis bad it's only for holiday duration.

I suppose most of you are like me and make way too much mince-panes.

I happen to have great quantities left over. But here's a space

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Wife's Lot Miserable By Tormenting Husband

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband is almost 22 years of age and has fiery red hair and a temper to match. There is not a day that goes by without his flaring up about some trifling thing that happens to displease him.

On these occasions he will grab the nearest object, whether it be a coffee table or a bowl of flowers, and smash it to the floor breaking it to pieces.

He always finds fault with my food. He doesn't like any of my friends and quarrel with his own. He seems dissatisfied with me and my home.

The only thing that pleases him is our nine-month-old baby. On two occasions when I was a few minutes late coming home he locked me out of the house in the cold, and in desperation I had to break the back window to gain entrance.

You may ask why I don't leave him. Well, I'm old-fashioned and believe in married life. I would like to give my child a home and family background. But I don't feel I can take much more abuse. All I ask for is a happy home. What can I do to get one?

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Christmas Day Belongs To Little Children

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Here it is, the day before Christmas and if all through the house nothing is stirring, it's a pretty peculiar house. This is the final of weeks of shopping, to get just the toys the 2-year-old can enjoy, to find just the right type of everything else, to see that everything fits just the person for whom it is intended.

If there was ever an unselfish period in life, this week before Christmas when everyone is intent upon buying just the present that will make someone else happy. I love all the preparations for Christmas, but I must admit that the wrapping of presents is the most fun. That glittering ribbon, yards and yards of it, the zift tags and stickers!

In fact for several weeks before the holiday a bed table is a... up in an upstairs bedroom and as the presents are delivered they get their wrapping and sticking so that they may go away in the closet and be forgotten.

Christmas is the children's day in our family. Christmas eve belongs to the grownups. We gather in a home, pile the presents under the tree and after the children are asleep we begin the distribution. Soon a gift of presents is beside each child and all together we start unwrapping.

Then begin the ohs and ahs and the thank-yous and the examination of what everyone else has received. Afterwards we have a cozy snack and go to bed ready to devote the early morning hours to the small fry.

It's nice to think that all over the world the children are gathered together. Lights are shining softly on Christmas trees, bright packages are tucked under trees, soot food is resting in the ice box waiting for the eager eaters.

Playing Percentages Usually Pays Off

By William E. McConney

Please, Santa Claus, take a careful look in that bag of yours, and see if you have something special for Curt H. Hestinger, of New York City. Curt has been associated with me in the Children's Cancer Fund and served for a number of years as treasurer of War Orphanas.

He is a member of the board of directors of the latter organization. Each year since the start of the war, instead of giving trophies for his event in the Eastern Tournament, he has given a scholarship to an orphan of the war.

Curt has been active in national bridge affairs for a good many years, and is one of the officers of the National Bridge Organization. He believes that if it pays to play the percentages in a bridge hand, that helped him to make the contract on today's hand. He admitted that the jump to six spades, over his partner's bid of four spades, was a little ambitious, but he likes toward three rounds of diamonds, to play such contracts.

Living Cost Problems Not Only in Canada

Edmontonian's Trip to France Show High Prices, Lots of Food

Canadians are definitely not the only people in the world who are having cost-of-living troubles, according to Miss Paulette Crevelin, who returned to Edmonton last week after a trip to France.

Kind of a kind, except for the cold and, most, is fairly plentiful in France, says Miss Crevelin. Even butter and meat can be had easily if you can afford to pay fabulous prices for it on the black market.

French restaurants are maintaining their traditional high standards. A wonderful four course meal can be had for about $1.50, something that would be fairly hard to find in Edmonton.

Hadasah Worker To Be In City To Speak Next Week

Miss Hannah Stein, of London, Eng., field worker for Canadian Hadasah, will be in Edmonton next week during the course of a Canada-wide tour, she will undertake extensive organization and field work on behalf of Hadasah.

Address will be given by Miss Stein at a joint meeting of the Edmonton chapter of Hadasah, Junior Hadasah and the Kadisha group, which will be held Tuesday at 8:30 in the Talmud Torah Hall.

After serving for two years in England as administrative manager of a war factory, Miss Stein was a member of the Relief and Rehabilitation Department of the World Jewish Congress, British section.

Now a free lance journalist and member of the foreign press association, Miss Stein has visited Israel many times and made a special trip there just before coming to Canada this month.

It was the first trip to France for Miss Crevelin, who is secretary to Louis Maynard, and French Consul Agent in Edmonton. During the war she was secretary to the Edmonton Free French Committee, and last year received a special Free French award for her services.

She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. Crevelin, who is visiting friends and relatives in France after an absence of 35 years. Normandy battlefields, as well as Paris, Arras, Lille, Vieux Laen, Givet, Louvain, and Liege, Normandy, and the Rhine, were seen.

Miss Crevelin expressed amazement at the rapid rate of reconstruction, many cities in Northern France (such as Le Havre) are still in a state of almost complete devastation, restoration work is progressing, and French morale seems extremely high.

Miss Crevelin and her mother also spent some time in Belgium, Scotland and England. They picked an exciting time to stay in London, said Miss Crevelin, as they arrived there the day after the birth of Prince Charles of Edinburgh.

Pre-Christmas Wedding Here

Ferns and chrysanthemums and a setting of Christmas trees provided a wedding background recently when Helen Patricia Clegg became the bride of Charles Barrie Thompson.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clegg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, all of Edmonton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. T. Young, performed at the ceremony.

The bride gives in marriage by her father, chose a period gown styled with off-the-shoulder neckline and bubble collar. The gown featured a lace yoke and long, lily-point sleeves. She wore a long veil and her bouquet was of red roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Mrs. A. J. J. and Miss Ruth Thompson attended the bride. They wore blue and pink, respectively, and carried chrysanthemum bouquets.

A. Engman was best man and Robert Clegg and Hume Backstrom acted as the groomsmen.

M. H. H. played the wedding music and soloist was Alan Iyer.

A reception for 60 guests was held at the King Edward hotel where pink carnations and white lilies decorated the bride's table, which was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Young.

Mrs. Clegg chose for her daughter's wedding a black crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of Cypripedium roses.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bridegroom, was in a raspberry crepe frock with grey accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Woody stems of flowers such as chrysanthemums should be very greatly crushed at the tips before flowers are placed in water. To crush the stem tips lay flowers on a table and lightly run a rolling pin over the last inch and a half of stem. This breaks down the hard fibers and permits the flower to absorb water more easily.

Christmas Is for Kids Make it a Happy Day

The kids who get the most out of Christmas aren't necessarily the ones who get the most under the Christmas tree.

The children to whom Christmas means the most are: Those who have their own Christmas secrets and who are excited over the small gifts they have made for their parents or saved their own money to buy.

The children whose mothers act as though Christmas is a wonderful time, not a hectic event to be tackled like the job of spring housecleaning.

The children who get to help with the pre-Christmas activities, like selecting and decorating the tree, making cookies, wrapping packages, etc.

The children whose Christmas toys are really theirs, to do with as they like. What's the fun of a new toy if the parents keep warning, "You'll break it if you do this or that."

The children whose parents really believe that Christmas is for children and stay home with them Christmas Eve instead of running off to a group party, and who make Christmas Day a family day.

The children who get enough but not so much they haven't a chance to really be excited over getting the one thing they wanted most.

The children whose parents have taught them the real meaning of Christmas.

Prices Are Firm In Dull Trading

Toronto, Dec. 24.—(CP)—

Prices formed in dull trading on today's stock market. The Toronto Stock Exchange, a handful of new industrial issues ahead for narrow gains and gold and western oil continued in demand. These markets were mixed in a narrow range as the exchange prepared to close for a long week-end. Volume was about 500,000 shares.

Canadian Vickers attracted attention in the industrial for a good gain, and a few scattered issues brightened. Generally the list was quiet and fractionally rising.

A wide range of western oil continued in Thursday's advance. Anglo-Canadian sold at a new high at $4.00 and Calgary and Edmonton, Home Oil and Pacific Petroleum advanced strongly.

Seniors were quiet and junior producers rose irregularly.

Cochran, Quilley and Beattie, Glaxo, Yellowknife, Zinc, Maltic and Pickle Creek rose among the better gains.

Smelters weakened in base metal while Gulf Lead, Ogon, Steep Rock and Sherritt brightened.

Business in U.S. Eyes Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—(AP)—United States business, perched on a peak of nervous prosperity, enters the New Year with a wary eye on Washington. Rumors of new tax increases, tighter inflation control, a resurgence of labor power and a possibly costly "social" program accounted in part for industry's jitters.

Yet almost every economic indicator points to a 1950 boom in production, income and profits, supported by the heaviest federal spending in peacetime history.

Other reports noted by business men were partly satisfied. A sudden flattening of consumer prices gladdened housewives; farm income dipped a new shy when agribusiness gave stockholders their first drop in sales they trade since 1947.

"Treasury Secretary John Snyder is not a pessimist," said one of the national prosperity, "and the maintenance of our high-level economy will continue to be a principal objective of government policy."

There is a possibility business dip—once it is due later in 1950, as some economists predict, seemed likely to leave the United States on a plateau of earning, working and profit.

When the country emerged from the war.

While supply was approaching demand for many products, there appeared pressures were mounting.

A steady rain of federal dis-inflation, the Treasury said, the 1950 budget will be the federal in peace-time history.

Crude oil dangers on foreign fronts may mean bigger military spending, Munitions-making credit limits and payoffs without putting any goods on the market.

However, military men are chief of the $15,000,000,000 limit set by President Truman on their (AP).
